RE: Authors' Autograph Table at Centennial Convention
DATE: May 1991

Plans are being developed for an Authors' Autograph Table at ANA's Chicago Centennial Convention, August 13-18. The table will be located in the ANA Membership Area, near the ANA Store, which is the first stop as one enters the bourse.

Authors, such as yourself, are being asked to set aside 30-60 minutes at the table to sign their books and chat or be photographed with their students, colleagues and fans. Authors are also invited to bring their books to the convention, or make arrangements with their publisher or distributor, so the books can be sold at ANA's Convention Store. Convention goers will be invited to bring their already purchased books for authors to sign. A schedule of authors and the times of their appearance will be published before the convention.

I have taken the liberty to include a brief form on a postcard for you to complete in the event you would like to participate.

I look forward to seeing you in Chicago.

Dear Eric:

Plans are being developed for an Author's Autograph Table at ANA's Chicago Centennial Convention, August 13-18. The table will be located in the ANA Membership Area, immediately as one enters the bourse.

Thursday, August 15 from 11 a.m. to 12 noon has been set aside for authors of the ANA Centennial Anthology to sign the book. As an author of the Anthology, I would like to invite you to attend the autograph party at that time.

Enclosed, for your convenience, is a response card. I hope you will be able to participate.

Sincerely,

James

MEMORANDUM

TO: Authors
FROM: James Taylor J.T.
RE: Author Signings at ANA's Chicago Convention
DATE: July 23, 1991

Nearly all of the slots for authors to sign their books have been claimed. Enclosed is a master schedule. Please note your time and day.

The signing will take place in the ANA Membership Area, immediately as one enters the convention's bourse room.

If you have not already, please contact Rudy Bahr regarding the sale of your book(s) at the ANA Convention Store. You can either have the publisher ship the books to Rudy at Chicago or bring the books yourself. Rudy's number is 719-632-2646.

Please call me at the same number if you have any questions or concerns.

Dear Eric:

As promised, enclosed is a list of possible questions that Ken Hallenbeck, the moderator for the 1991 Educational Forum, may be asking you. Ken said he may ask additional questions, based upon the responses he receives and the direction the conversations take.

I purposely use the word "conversation" because that is the mood Ken hopes to create.

The event is Friday night, August 16, from 7:30 until 9 or 9:30. The evening will be videotaped and shown at ANA's Bicentennial Educational Forum.

Sincerely,

James Taylor
Director of Educational Services

POSSIBLE QUESTIONS FOR THE 1991 EDUCATIONAL FORUM

- How, when and why did you become interested in numismatics?
- What was the first coin you bought/received? What happened to it?
- Why aren't people (young and old) getting interested in numismatics like they used to?
- Who is the single most colorful person you have known in numismatics? Why?
- Who are some of the young writers and researchers showing the most promise for the future? Who are the people to whom you will be passing your mantle?
- What have been the three most significant changes in numismatics during this century?
- Are we better for them?
- What do you personally collect?
- What are 3 things the hobby/industry needs to survive and thrive in the next century?
- What is your personal favorite story/anecdote about numismatics?
- What is the future role for ANA?
